Escarmouche Paintball

Date of Game .....

Subsequent to observation of the safety instructions, I hereby agree to the following;

“The Company” accepts your booking on the understanding that you realise the hazards involved in this type of recreation, including injury or death, disease, loss or damage to property, and that you engage in this recreation at your own risk. Other than liability for negligence in respect of death or personal injury, we accept no liability for any injury resulting from the hazards of paintballing, or any other activity included in the recreation, or for any other mishaps to yourself or your property

You are responsible for ensuring that you have adequate private insurance, with protection for the full duration of the game in respect of at least medical expenses, injury, death and repatriation. You should ensure that there are no exclusion clauses limiting protection for the type of activities included in this recreation.

Participants must be relatively fit to take part in this recreation. By accepting the terms you are confirming that, to the best of your knowledge, your general state of health is good and that you take full responsibility for your health and personal well being unless accompanied by someone who has taken this responsibility. Any client with a pre-existing medical condition or illness must declare such conditions when booking. The Company may require a medical statement from a GP confirming that they are fit to participate. The Company reserves the right to refuse a participant who is deemed medically unfit to take part. Participants must inform The Company if there is any change in medical conditions between booking and departure.”

In particular participants have been;

1. Advised to wear appropriate footwear
2. Given protective goggles and offered body protection
3. Informed that the paintballs may cause bruising
4. Advised that the game is a non- contact sport
